Eight persons were killed and a number of others are reported missing at the result of an explosion Monday at the plant of the Harlan Morris Stave Manufacturing Company, at Jackson, Tenn. Three boilers gave way and the shock was felt throughout the city. More than 75 men were employed by the company, and it was said if the explosion had occurred an hour later the loss of life would have been heavy.

FORCED TO LET WIFE DROP.

Husband Clung to Heels As She Hung From Window.

Baltimore, Aug. 23.—For nearly five minutes Monday night George R. Perina clung to his wife's feet as she hung from the window of their apartment, on the second floor of 311 North Greene street.

In a state of wild insanity for the past two weeks, probably aggravated by the heat, she had flung herself out. Mrs. Margaret Perina, the wife, is heavy. There was no immediate answer to the husband's cries for help, and she was twisting and struggling, head downward. He dropped her, and she landed on her head in the back yard.

Neighbors reached the yard and looked up at the Perinas' apartments in time to see Mrs. Perina drop. Policemen who arrived in the Western patrol wagon found her just regaining consciousness. At University Hospital her skull was found to be fractured, she had a deep gash on her head and was badly bruised. Dr. C. C. Hoke, who attended her, thinks she will recover.

Perina said he had tried to place his wife in Mercy Hospital for treatment, but her mental condition barred her. He suggested last night that they take a walk, and she, promising to get ready, suddenly screamed and rushed to the open window. He only had time to seize her by the feet.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There Throughout the State.

Aubrey Adams was killed Sunday at his home near Bloomfield, near Purcellville, Va., by a bull. He was attempting to change the animal from one field to another when the beast charged him. Mr. Adams was knocked down and every bone in his body broken. Mr. Adams was 40 years old and is survived by his widow and three children.

The worst storm in years in Wythe county prevailed yesterday afternoon. All streams were higher than ever known and much property was destroyed. An inch of rain fell in 10 minutes. Several residences in Wytheville and several barns near town were struck by lightning, one barn being burned, but no lives were lost.

St. Luke's hospital in Richmond was struck by lightning in Monday night's severe storm. The bolt hit one of the galvanized iron ornaments on the cornice of the building, knocking it off. It found its way to the ground by way of water pipes and wires, all of which it burned out and melted. None of the patients of the hospital was injured, although several were badly frightened.

At a meeting of health officers and physicians yesterday in Richmond on the call of State Health Commissioner Ennion G. Williams, a resolution was adopted declaring Virginia to be in a state of quarantine against all areas infected with infantile paralysis, effective at noon, August 25. It is proposed to place guards along the state border where automobile roads enter from other states and to enforce rigidly the quarantine at all Virginia ports.

Capt. Olsen, of the Norwegian steamer Alf, which arrived yesterday at Newport News, says that on Aug. 6 he passed the German merchant submarine Deutschland, proceeding at a very moderate rate of speed in an east and southeasterly direction. Seeing the craft low in the water, with masts both fore and aft, but with no sails set, Capt. Olsen thought she was a sailing ship in distress. When he started towards her she submerged but soon rose to the surface again.

State Auditor Lee Moore has received a letter from a Presbyterian minister severely arraigning the discrimination against ministers of that denomination and others in the state in favor of Methodists and Catholics, as he declares. It seems that the Presbyterian minister owns his home or certainly the furniture therein, and he objects to paying taxes on it. Methodists and Catholics have homes for the benefit of their ministers, all fully furnished, and as they are used for church purposes they are not taxed. Mr. Moore has referred the letter to the attorney general for construction of the law.

Bristol was selected as Democratic campaign headquarters at a conference between E. Lee Trinkle, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Ninth district, and District County Chairman Frank B. Caldwell will have charge here. Mr. Trinkle will maintain an office in Wytheville, while Frank Wyser, the district secretary, will direct the work from Pulaski. The date for opening the campaign will be announced as soon as desired speakers are heard from. Trinkle is going in to win, if possible, and has the party leaders united behind him. That he will be opposed by Representative C. B. Slemph is regarded as certain. The Republicans will nominate in a convention to be held in Bristol Tuesday.

Nine members of the crew of the Norwegian steamer Cossack, from New Orleans and Norfolk for Grange-mouth, with a cargo of gasoline in drums, was lost in midocean, when the steamer, completely on fire, was abandoned on August 12.

FAMILY AVOIDS
SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theodor's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for seven years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theodor's Black-Draught, which I did and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught.

Theodor's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

Your druggist sells and recommends Black-Draught. Price only 25c. Get a package to-day.
